MADAME GOULD NOT TO WED.
Denies That She Is Engaged; Says She Has Had Enough of Married Life.

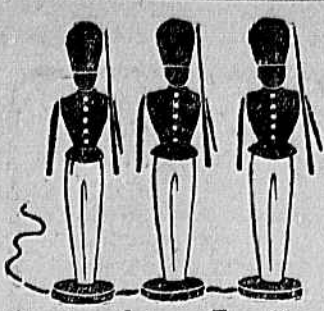

NEW YORK, March 19.—Madame Anna Gould, the divorced wife of Count de Castiglione, arrived here today on the steamer Adriatic, and denied she is to marry Prince Heli de Sagan. She said: "I have had enough of married life; I am not engaged to any one."

Madame Gould was accompanied by her three sons, Boni, Jay and George, the custody of whom the French courts awarded to the mother. The party was met at the pier by Miss Helen Gould, Mrs. George J. Gould and Mrs. Tyler Morse. They were later taken to the Fifth Avenue home of Miss Gould.

"No," he said, "not only am I not engaged to be married, but I do not intend to be engaged. Nor am I here in an effort to put a stop to stories of an engagement, or for the purpose of arranging matters concerning my property interests in Paris. My visit is an ordeal which all women approach with indescribable fear, for nothing compares with the pain and horror of child-birth. The thought of the suffering and danger in store for her, robs the expectant mother of all pleasant anticipations of the coming event, and casts over her a shadow of gloom which cannot be shaken off. Thousands of women have found that the use of Mother's Friend during pregnancy robs confinement of all pain and danger, and insures safety to life of mother and child. This scientific liniment is a god-send to all women at the time of their most critical trial. Not only does Mother's Friend carry women safely through the perils of child-birth, but its use gently prepares the system for the coming event, prevents "morning sickness," and other discomforts of this period.

FIGHT RESULTS IN DEATH.
Exercise and Excitement Too Much for Anderson—Coxin Is Killed.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., March 19.—John Anderson, a sailor belonging to the crew of the new American steamship Lurline, died from heart failure today during a fist fight with Peter Cosin, a fellow seaman, aboard the Lurline. A coroner's jury exonerated Cosin, and he was released, but it is probable that the young man will be held for trial by the Warwick county authorities when the Lurline sails for San Francisco Sunday.

Anderson and Cosin had a quarrel in the forecastle of the ship, and when three witnesses started in to settle their differences with their fists. After a few minutes of fighting, Anderson fell down, and it was soon seen that he was in a critical state. Before medical assistance could be summoned he was dead. Cosin seemed to be deeply affected by the death. He lost no time in notifying the captain and remained at the side of his late opponent until the end came.

Dr. R. R. Gary found that death was caused by heart failure, brought on by the exercise and excitement. Anderson was a native of Washington, and she has a sister in Washington, and she has a sister in Washington, and she has a sister in Washington.

WITNESSES GOT WEAK ON STAND

Commonwealth Unable to Prove Case Against Alleged Gamblers in Police Court.

Owing, it is alleged, to the vacillation of several witnesses, who failed to substantiate on the stand the story they had previously told to the police, the Commonwealth failed in the Police Court yesterday to secure the conviction of David Gaines, a railroad man, and Dudley Martin, a bricklayer, charged with running a common gambling house at No. 164 North Seventeenth Street.

Commonwealth's Attorney Pollock and the Police Department assert that the case would have been abundantly proved had one of the witnesses, a well-known physician, who played poker in the room, told to the court the same story he related to Policeman Goldsby, who made the arrests; Captain Barfoot, of the First Precinct, and Policeman Kuhn.

Commonwealth's Attorney Pollock attempted to put Policeman Goldsby on the stand to prove that the physician had said he lost $15 worth of chips, but that Gaines had informed him there would be no cashing up. Attorney Gilbert K. Pollock, who represented the alleged gamblers, prevented the introduction of this testimony except to impeach the witness, and Justice Crutcher ruled that the court would consider the case only on the evidence adduced under oath. The testimony was to the effect that the supposed gambling joint occupied two rooms over a pressing club and operated four card tables. It was purposed, one of the witnesses stated, to secure a charter as the Marshall Social and political Club, with Gaines as chief executive officer. A breezy discussion of poker games in general was engaged in by Attorney Pollock and Justice Crutcher, and the case was adjourned to next night's session.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic-stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture, its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. It strengthens and sustains the system; is a promoter of health and longevity; makes the old young and keeps the young strong.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine.
